

"A Man's Holy Business of Loving His Wife"

"When we think of holiness, great saints of the past like Francis of Assisi or George Muller spring to mind - or contemporary giants of the faith like Mother Teresa. But holiness is not the private preserve of an elite corps of martyrs, mystics and Nobel prize winners. Holiness is the everyday business of every Christian. It evidences itself in the decisions we make and the things we do, day by day, hour by hour."
—Charles Colson, Loving God

I. The Master's memo redesign

Gen. 2:18-25

II. Some strategic initiatives for success

Eph. 5:15-33

For reflection and discussion:

1. Whether you're single or married, how might these passages change your paradigm about marriage and what differences could that make in your life?
2. In what specific and practical ways could my marriage more winsomely reveal "the great mystery" to the watching world?
