

Answering Tough Theological Questions iLeader Workshop Session 2

Matt Morton & Blake Jennings answer your toughest Bible, theology and ministry questions.

- Q: How do we reconcile the Biblical account of creation in light of scientific evidence? How literal is the Biblical account? Geneticists say the current human population could not have come from a gene pool of just two individuals. Should the story of Adam and Eve be interpreted literally?
Topic: creation
Answered by Blake & Matt
- Q: What do you think will be the biggest issues or controversies Christians will face in the next 10 years?
Topic: homosexuality
Answered by Matt
Begins at: 15 minutes 8 seconds
- Q: Can people choose their sexual orientation? Is homosexual attraction a choice?
Topic: homosexuality
Answered by Matt & Blake
Begins at: 16 minutes 28 seconds
- Q: How should Christians respond to homosexuals?
Topic: homosexuality, tolerance
Answered by Matt & Blake
Begins at: 39 minutes 21 seconds
- Q: How can God be all good and all powerful and allow evil to exist?
Topic: evil
Answered by Blake
Begins at: 49 minutes 35 seconds
- Q: Does God punish through natural disasters?
Topic: natural disasters
Answered by Matt
Begins at: 55 minutes 48 seconds
- Q: Why does God treat people unequally/unfairly (such as poverty)?
Topic: fairness
Answered by Blake
Begins at: 58 minutes 39 seconds
- Q: What would you say to someone who says "I can't love a god that allows such things as the holocaust to happen"?
Topic: evil
Answered by Matt & Blake
Begins at: 60 minutes 51 seconds

Q: How do we handle passages such as God sending an evil spirit to torment Saul or God hardening Pharaoh's heart?

Topic: evil

Answered by Matt & Blake

Begins at: 68 minutes 29 seconds